

Gold Standard discount

To be eligible for this 10 per cent discount organizations must fulfill four of the following five criteria (where meeting deadlines, gender representation and young professionals representative is obligatory). After the 10 per cent discount is applied, the event fee is SEK 32 400.

- Meet deadlines – All event process deadlines must to be met (see convenor conditions for deadlines).
- Gender representation – At least one-third of your event presenters (panelists and speakers) are female. The aim is a balanced gender representation.
- Young professional representative – At least one of the presenters is a young professional, i.e., under 35.
- Innovative format – Event organizers present using an innovative format, such as a world café, ignite talk, mini meeting, energizer, etc. (
- Discussion and audience interaction – some 25 per cent of event time is allocated for audience discussion (if using the lecturing format). Other formats may already incorporate discussion.

Disclaimer: The discount will be applied in July after the event programme has been submitted and when the invoices are sent out. Should it be discovered that the criteria are not fulfilled at the time of the event the additional amount, as well as an administrative fee, will be invoiced. If the invoice is not paid on time, the full cost will be charged.
